SOHEB KHAN

PROFILE

I'm good at solving problems and have strong technical skills, especially with data. I face challenges with a positive attitude and stay focused on finding solutions. I work well both on my own and with others, always doing my best to meet and go beyond what's expected. My goal is to keep improving and add value to any team or project I work on.

I have completed a full-time 6-month training in Java Full Stack Development from J Spider, Thane. During this training, I gained strong skills in Core Java, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, Advance Java, Hibernate, along with basic knowledge of React.js, Express.js, and Tailwind CSS. I am also currently learning Spring, and Spring Boot to enhance my technical abilities further.
